I. Reading Section (20 marks)

Read about three different experiences with taxis.

The USA
Well, imagine how my sister felt when she went off for the first time to New York for a business trip. After a few days she was still amazed at how friendly everyone was to her until she took a taxi back to her hotel one night. First she gave just the name of the hotel, but when asked she said the address too. Then she was asked how to get there but, of course, she hadn't a clue. Imagine how frightened she was when he started shouting at her for not knowing the way. She said it was awful.

The UK
A friend of a friend was in London for a conference. He took a cab and there were no problems: the driver knew the way and was very cheerful. The problem started when he realised he had stupidly left his laptop on the back seat! He called the company up and, in a panic, went straightaway to their Lost and Found office (and missing some of the conference as a result). He was over the moon to find the laptop waiting for him, and then very surprised that it was one of 2,900 left in taxis over the past six months!

Tunisia
Well, my brother took a Mediterranean cruise one summer and had a day in Tunis. He spent most of the afternoon in the Medina buying presents when he suddenly realised he'd completely lost track of time and there was only half an hour before the ship left the port. There had been loads of yellow taxis in the centre so he wasn't too bothered until he stood on the pavement and waited for one to appear - and of course there wasn't a single one in sight! Nothing! Frantic, he questioned a passer-by who explained that the cost for the taxi ride goes up in the evening so the taxi drivers disappear until they can charge higher prices! Luckily for my brother the man then offered to give him a lift and he caught the boat in the nick of time!

One Way to Get Even

WELLINGTON Monday September 25 (Reuters) – Five thousand of the CDs are on the market, of which more than 4,000 have been snapped up by local retailers, Marsland said. The album is his second.

"If your neighbors have a party Saturday night fairly late...what you do is you get up at seven o'clock in the morning, put the hour of lawn mowing sound on and go out to a café," Wellington noise man and café owner Geoff Marsland told Reuters Monday.

The CD offers listeners general lawnmower sounds along with feature moments such as the emptying of the catcher and stones hitting the blades.
